On that positive note, here's how December looked like at Fountainhead School!

Visual Arts students of grade 11-12 attended a virtual meet with artist Bhairavi Modi which has surely given our budding designers a peek into the types of resources that can be designed for the target audience.

When you meet people with similar interests their passion rubs on to you! This has furthered the IB Learner Profile attributes.

A real life learning for the students of grade 10 Integrated Humanities in the form of Human Library, where Human books were invited to share their stories with the students.

Further, an interview was conducted with Mr. Shrikant Jadav, an English teacher who faced discrimination in various forms in his life. He also explained how different assistive devices are used while walking to guide them of any obstacles.

Another interesting event was the FS Junior MUN organized by six students of grade 7 and 8 MLC targeting grade 9-10 students. The catalogue consisted of 16 books which can be designed for the target audience.

As a part of the current unit on developing resources for visually impaired students and how they write in braille. He also explained how different assistive devices are used while walking to guide them of any obstacles.

The reading and discussions led to a firm understanding that slow learning with prejudice and stereotypes.

Facing difficulty in managing time? Read the book “Eat that Frog”. The first thing you should do each morning is to eat a live frog. Your frog is your task that you need to do the most to feel the best about yourself! Or get more work done in less time. It talks about 21 ways to stop procrastinating and get more work done in less time. It is a very practical book that can help you get the most out of your days.

Arya Vachhani from grade 9 participated in the DSB international TEDx and was the only student from Gujarat to have been invited to participate.

Yugsinh Gharia(grade 8) and Krish Kabutarwala(grade 9) received special recognition as Gold Scholar and Bronze Scholar respectively.

When around 70% of the country’s population is directly or indirectly dependent on agriculture and if the government introduces certain bills to which farmers are protesting, How come you do not think about it? Copy of all the 3 farm bills were put up on Reshaping - a small effort for a big leap!

The event started off with an introduction of Srinivasa Ramanujan, his contributions in the field of mathematics and the 125th anniversary of the legendary Indian Mathematician. Students of grade 7 commemorated Srinivasa Ramanujan, his contributions in the field of mathematics on his 125th birth anniversary.

The past is a place of learning! The only student from Gujarat who who won a national level competition was Mr. Shrishang Patel of grade 7.

Now that Santa has arrived and left us with lots of good wishes for the New Year let us remember the hard work that we have put in the past and move ahead towards the bright future.

The catalogue consisted of 16 books which can be designed for the target audience.

A real life learning for the students of grade 10 Integrated Humanities in the form of Human Library, where Human books were invited to share their stories with the students.

Further, an interview was conducted with Mr. Shrikant Jadav, an English teacher who faced discrimination in various forms in his life. He also explained how different assistive devices are used while walking to guide them of any obstacles.

The reading and discussions led to a firm understanding that slow learning with prejudice and stereotypes.

Facing difficulty in managing time? Read the book “Eat that Frog”. The first thing you should do each morning is to eat a live frog. Your frog is your task that you need to do the most to feel the best about yourself! Or get more work done in less time. It talks about 21 ways to stop procrastinating and get more work done in less time. It is a very practical book that can help you get the most out of your days.

Yugsinh Gharia(grade 8) and Krish Kabutarwala(grade 9) received special recognition as Gold Scholar and Bronze Scholar respectively.

When around 70% of the country’s population is directly or indirectly dependent on agriculture and if the government introduces certain bills to which farmers are protesting, How come you do not think about it? Copy of all the 3 farm bills were put up on Reshaping - a small effort for a big leap!

The event started off with an introduction of Srinivasa Ramanujan, his contributions in the field of mathematics and the 125th anniversary of the legendary Indian Mathematician. Students of grade 7 commemorated Srinivasa Ramanujan, his contributions in the field of mathematics on his 125th birth anniversary.

The past is a place of learning! The only student from Gujarat who who won a national level competition was Mr. Shrishang Patel of grade 7.

Now that Santa has arrived and left us with lots of good wishes for the New Year let us remember the hard work that we have put in the past and move ahead towards the bright future.